

homeward

ASSISTED RETURNS PROGRAM

The Assisted Returns Program provides non-citizens with an option to voluntarily depart Australia. We listen to your needs, respect your choices and give you options to return home. You are given up-to-date information so you remain in control to make the right decisions.

Your expenses are covered

If you are eligible, your approved travel expenses will be covered under this program.

1300 094 663

assistedreturns.com.au

Who is eligible

Once you decide you want to depart Australia, the Department of Home Affairs will assess your eligibility.

Chat with us

We want to understand your situation and give you options that meet your needs.

Get things in order

We will ensure you are prepared for your return home by providing you with information and checklists throughout your travel journey.

Prepare documents

We can assist you to complete the required travel forms so you have the right documents for your travel journey.

Organise travel

We will organise your travel by booking your flights, accommodation and any transport you may need.

Depart Australia

On the day of departure, you will feel ready and prepared and still have access to your assigned Case Worker.

